

Mother's Day

“public expression of our love and reverence for the mothers of our country.”

Mother's Day

A mother can make a significant spiritual impact on her children with God's power despite the circumstances in which she finds herself.

Mother's Day

⁵⁹ The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. And she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses and Miriam their sister.

¹ Now a man from the house of Levi went and took as his wife a Levite woman.

²The woman conceived and bore a son, and when she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months.

³ When she could hide him no longer, she took for him a basket made of bulrushes and daubed it with bitumen and pitch. She put the child in it and placed it among the reeds by the river bank.

⁴ And his sister stood at a distance to know what would be done to him.

⁵ Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her young women walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her servant woman, and she took it.

⁶ When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby was crying. She took pity on him and said, “This is one of the Hebrews’ children.”

⁷ Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and call you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?”

⁸ And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." So the girl went and called the child's mother.

⁹ And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him.

¹⁰ When the child grew older, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, “Because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

¹⁷ “But as the time of the promise drew near, which God had granted to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt

¹⁸ until there arose over Egypt another king who did not know Joseph.

¹⁹ He dealt shrewdly with our race and forced our fathers to expose their infants, so that they would not be kept alive.

²⁰ At this time Moses was born; and he was beautiful in God's sight. And he was brought up for three months in his father's house,

²¹ and when he was exposed, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son.

²² And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in his words and deeds.
